

Charter of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors of Royal Unibrew A/S

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is a Committee established by the Board of Directors of Royal Unibrew A/S.

Purpose and function of the Committee:

Remuneration, principal responsibilities include:

- Recommend the remuneration policy including the overall guidelines for incentive pay to the Executive Management and the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and its Committees for approval by the entire Board of Directors prior to the approval of the latter at the Annual General Meeting
- Recommend to the Board of Directors the remuneration of the members of the Board
- On behalf of the Board of Directors, agree on adjustments of the Executive Management's base salary and employment terms including fees, bonus agreements, employee benefits, car schemes and severance agreements and regulation of share-based incentive schemes. Any adjustment is negotiated by the Committee prior to joint approval by the Board of Directors or decided by the Committee in accordance with specific authorization from the entire Board
- Ensure that the remuneration (and other benefits, if any, for the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management) is in accordance with the Company's remuneration policy and in line with the assessment of the individual's performance
- Ensure that the information in the annual report on remuneration to the Board of Directors and the Executive Management is correct and adequate
- May recommend a remuneration policy applicable for the Company in general
- Monitor other matters in relation to the mentioned tasks, which the Committee, in its sole discretion, may find necessary and other tasks that the Board of Directors may request the Committee to prepare or assess

Nomination

- Annually describe and assess the qualifications/competencies required by the Executive Management and the Board of Directors as well as assess the competencies, knowledge and experience that exist in the Board of Directors and the Executive Board and report to the Board of Directors
- Annually review the structure, size, composition and results of the Executive Management and the Board of Directors and report to the Board of Directors in this respect, including an action plan on the future composition of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management and potential recommendations to changes

- Annually analyze and review the competencies, knowledge, experience and succession of the individual members of the Executive Management and report to the Board of Directors in this respect
- Prior to completing a potential search process for a given position, complete a written description of the position including skills, knowledge and experience and time resources estimated to be required
- Identify and recommend to the Board of Directors candidates to the Board of Directors and the Executive Board
- Ensure a qualified selection of any potential external advisors to assist in the search for candidates based on qualifications, knowledge and experience
- Review and assess candidates and their competencies, knowledge and experience, and whether they have the required time resources. The assessment should take into account the description of the above as well as competencies, knowledge and experience of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management
- Ensure a long-term succession planning for Executive Management positions and Board positions in the Company

Members of the Committee

- The Committee consists of minimum two and maximum three members and must include the Chairman of the Board of Directors. All members of the Committee must qualify as independent as defined by the Danish Recommendations on Corporate Governance

Meetings in the Committee

- The Committee shall meet as often as it determines appropriate; however, at least twice a year
- The Committee keeps exact written records of its meetings

Committee Member Remuneration

- Members of the Committee shall receive a yearly remuneration (paid quarterly) in accordance with the Company's Remuneration Principles, as proposed by the Board of Directors and approved at the AGM

Changes to the Charter

- Changes to the Charter may only be adopted at a Board of Directors meeting where the entire board is present and with the majority required according to the Company's rules of procedure
